

Fauzan Abdul Hamid

Kyoto, Japan | +81 8080873406 | fauzanhamid.id@gmail.com | linkedin.com/in/fauzan-hamid

PROFILE

Economic development and policymaking have been a source of keen interest for Fauzan. He showed his passion by engaging in a variety of research projects, from voting decision to environmental policy valuation, and gaining experience at key policy organizations. He is also experienced in statistical analysis with R and Python and presenting research in English and Japanese. Fauzan's current research focus is colonial institutions and development in Indonesia.

EDUCATION

Kyoto University

2021 – 2025

4th year, Economics and Management, Cumulative GPA: 3.82/4.00

- Makoto Maki Memorial Kyoto iUP Scholarship awardee, a full scholarship for outstanding students across the world with an acceptance rate of around 6%.
- 5-year bachelor's and master's program student, a program that accepted 6 people from a pool of students with the top 20% of GPA in the faculty.

Language: Indonesian (Native), English (Fluent, TOEFL IBT 119/120), Japanese (Fluent, JLPT N1)

Programming Skills: R, Python, Stata, MATLAB

WORK EXPERIENCE

Central Bank of Indonesia, Department of Economic and Monetary Policy - Intern

October 2023 – November 2023

- Developed in-depth reports on electric vehicle adoption and industrial gas subsidies, with data analysis using R and Excel. Facilitated discussions with industry players and regional regulators.

VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE

Kyoto Prefecture Friendship Ambassador

July 2024 – present

- Selected as 1 of 10 ambassadors to bridge the cultural gap between Kyoto and their home countries. Assisted Japanese organizers and international stakeholders in effective communication during social and cultural events with more than 10,000 total attendees.

Kyoto City International Foundation – Guest Teacher

December 2022 – present

- Prepared and taught lessons on Indonesian culture for elementary, middle, and high school students in Japan. Led interactive cultural exchange events with hands-on activities and discussions to promote cross-cultural understanding.

United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) – Student Ambassador

November 2022 – May 2023

- Worked with 93 student ambassadors from 19 countries in raising awareness concerning the UNDP mission through social media campaigns.
- Participated in training regarding social media engagement, governance, and UNDP activities.

Indonesian Student Association, Kyoto-Shiga – Head of Social and Cultural Affairs

Division

November 2021 – October 2022

- Led a team of 6 in organizing social gatherings for Indonesians in Kyoto and surrounding area. Acquired over 100 attendees, an increase of 400% from the previous year.